

PP Quick Guide to Professional Accreditation

A Quick Guide to ASA's Personal Property (PP) Accreditation Program

It's as easy as One, Two, Three.

Step 1: Become a Candidate Member of ASA

- Pass ASA's Online Ethics Exam
- Pass USPAP Exam (if applicable)

Step 2: Complete Education Requirements

- Pass the four PP Principles of Valuation (POV) Courses (PP201-204) OR
- Qualify for an education equivalency

Step 3: Apply for Accredited Member (AM) or Accredited Senior Appraiser (ASA) Designation

Candidates who have met the AM or ASA accreditation criteria are ready to submit an online accreditation application to include:*

- Proof of college education or submit the Education Equivalency Form
- Two (2) appraisal reports (and the accompanying report checklists and appraisal report release forms) as outlined in the PP Guide to Professional Accreditation.
- An Appraisal Experience Log documenting two (2) years of full-time experience for the AM designation and five (5) years of full-time experience for the ASA designation
- Passing the accreditation exam in your chosen specialty
- A current USPAP certificate (if required)
- Completion of the online accreditation application

Details on these requirements may be found in the Personal Property (PP) Guide to Professional Accreditation*
